SPIRIT OF SERVICE AWARDS

Russ Coburn was one of the instrumental people involved in the formation of the Alliance. When the Olympics came to Park city in 2002, he, as the leader at JANS, was the driving force in creating the vision of where Park City Winter sports clubs should grow to produce elite level athletes. With his ability to network and magnetic personality, he was able to bring the community's leaders together to join in his vision. The "old banker" in him recognized that teams needed financial backing in order to achieve their goals. Therefore, JANS annual fundraiser, the JANS winter welcome became the signature benefit to fund his dream. Going on its 31st year, JWW has raised millions of dollars for Park City's athletes.

Pete Dunmire has been working with the Summit Ski Team for six years. During his tenure as the President of the Board the membership has grown by over 50% and he has ensured that the budget is solid to allow for the growth and maturity. He provides good vision and leadership, keeping the core values of having a team where family involvement is welcome and encouraged. He has put in untold hours and with amazing passion for creating a quality skiing experience for hundreds of kids in Park City and surrounding areas. He has done this tirelessly and all as a very unpaid volunteer.
